Jl. Surotokunto No. 72, Karawang
Invitee : 50 teachers senior high schools in Karawang (15 public senior high schools & 10 private senior high schools) 10 person for Dinas Pendidikan Kabupaten Karawang, TLC, TLC’s partners

Rationale

Originated from Japan, Lesson study is a process that Japanese teachers engage into systematically examine their practice, with the goal of becoming more effective. Since 1999, lesson study has rapidly emerged in many sites across the world including in the US and Indonesia. There has been a big attention and request for a seminar with this theme in Karawang, West Java.

Through the assistance from Teachers Learning Center (TLC), Sampoerna School Education would like to give a better understanding about lesson study for teachers in Karawang.

Key Objective

To have a short seminar and sharing session about applying lesson study in teaching and learning.

Expected Outcomes

The goal of this seminar and sharing session is to create an awareness to teachers regarding how lesson study may improve students’ learning outcomes.
